

MCKINLEY'S NOMINATION SECONDED

By the Man Who Will be His Running Mate, Governor Theodore Roosevelt, of New York.

THE PEOPLES' CANDIDATE.

All the Pledges Made by the Republican Party Have Been Fulfilled.
A Speech That Will Live.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 21.—After Senator Foraker had completed his speech, and quiet had been restored, the roll of states was continued and when New York was reached, Governor Roosevelt was recognized and spoke as follows, seconding the nomination of President McKinley:

Mr. Chairman:—I respond to the nomination of William McKinley, the President who has had to meet and solve problems more numerous and more important than any other President since the days of mighty Abraham Lincoln; the President under whose administration this country has attained a higher pitch of prosperity at home and honor abroad than ever before in its history. Four years ago the Republican party nominated William McKinley as its standard bearer in a political conflict of greater moment to the nation than any that has taken place since the close of the Civil war saw us once more a reunited country. The Republican party nominated him; but, before the campaign was many days old, he had become the candidate not only of all Republicans, but of all Americans who were both far-sighted enough to see where the true interests of the country lay, and clear-minded enough to be keenly sensitive to the taint of dishonor. President McKinley was triumphantly elected on certain distinct pledges, and those pledges have been made more than good. We were then in a condition of industrial paralysis. The capitalist was plunged in ruin and disaster, the wage earner was on the edge of actual want. The success of our opponents would have meant not only immense aggravation of the actual physical distress, but also a stain on the nation's honor so deep that more than one generation would have to pass before it would be effectually wiped out. We promised that if President McKinley were elected not only should the national honor be kept unstained at home and abroad, but that the mill and the workshop should open, the farmer have a market for his goods, the merchant for his wares, and that the wage worker should prosper as never before.

Did Not Promise the Impossible. We did not promise the impossible; we did not say that, by good legislation and good administration there would come prosperity to all men. But we did say that each man should have a better chance to win prosperity than he had ever yet had. In the long the thrift, industry, energy and capacity of the individual must always remain the chief factors in his success. By unwise or dishonest legislation or administration on the part of the national authorities, all these qualities in the individual can be nullified but wise legislation and upright administration will give them free scope. And it was this free scope that we promised should be given.

Well, we kept our word. The opportunity has been given, and it has been seized by American energy, thrift and business enterprise. As a result, we have prospered as never before and we are now prospering to a degree that four years ago, when the cloud of menace to our industrial well being hung black above the land.

Armenia at Our Very Door.

So it has been in foreign affairs. Four years ago the nation was uneasy because right at our doors an American island lay writhing in awful agony under the curse of worse than medieval tyranny and misrule. We had our Armenia at our very doors for the situation in Cuba had grown intolerable and such that this nation could no longer refrain from interference, and retain its own self respect. President McKinley turned to this duty as he had turned to others. He sought by every effort possible to provide for Spain's withdrawal from the island, which she was impatient longer to do ought than oppress. Then, when pacific means had failed, and there remained the only alternative, we waged the most righteous and brilliantly successful foreign war that any country has waged during the life time of the present generation. It was not a great war, simply because it was won so quickly; but it was momentous indeed in its effects. It left us, all great facts must leave those who perform them, an inheritance both of honor and of responsibility; and, under the lead of President McKinley, the nation has taken up the task of securing orderly liberty and the reign of justice and law in the islands from which we drove the tyranny of Spain, with the same serious realization of duty and sincere purpose to perform it, that has marked the national attitude in dealing with the economic and financial difficulties that face us at home.

Old Adage of Swapping Horses.

This is what the nation has done during the three years that have elapsed since we made McKinley President, and all this is what he typifies and stands for. We have nominated him again, and in November next we shall elect him again; because it has been given to him to partially the cause of honor abroad and prosperity at home, of wise legislation and straightforward administration. We all know the old adage about swapping horses while crossing a stream and the still older adage about hitting one's head against a wall. To change from President McKinley now would not be merely to swap horses. It would be to jump off the horse that had carried us across, and wade back into the turbulent, and to put him for four years more into the white house means not merely to let well enough alone, but to insist that, when we are thriving as never before, we shall not be plunged back into the abyss of shame, and panic and disaster. We have done so well that our opponents actually use this very fact as an appeal for turning us out. We have put the tariff on a foundation so secure; we have passed such wise laws on finance; that they actually appeal to the patriotic, honest men who deserted them at the last election, to help them now; because, forsooth, we have done so well, that nobody need fear their capacity to undo our work. I am not exaggerating. This is literally the argument that is now addressed to the Gold Democrats as a reason why they need no longer stand by the Republican party. To all such who may be inclined to listen to these specious arguments, I would address an emphatic word of warning.

Wise and Honest Administration.

Remember that, admirable though our legislation has been during the past three years, it has been rendered possible and effective only because there was good administration to back it. Wise laws are invaluable, but, after all, they are not as necessary as wise and honest administration of the laws. The best law ever made, if administered by those who are hostile to it, and who mean to break it down, cannot be wholly effective, and may be wholly ineffective. We have at last put our financial legislation on a sound basis, but no possible financial legislation can save us from fearful and disastrous panic if we trust our finances to the management of any man who would be acceptable to the leaders and guides of the Democracy in its present spirit. No secretary of the treasury who would be acceptable to, or who could without loss of self-respect serve under the Populist Democracy could avoid plunging this country back into financial chaos. Until our opponents have explicitly and absolutely repudiated the principles which in '96 they professed and the leaders who embody these principles, their success means the undoing of the country. Nor have they any longer even the excuse of being honest in their folly. They have raved, they have foamed at the mouth in denunciation of trusts, and, now in my own state, their foremost party leaders, including the man before whom the others bow with bared head and trembling knee, have been discovered in a trust which really is of infamous and, perhaps, of criminal character; a trust in which these apostles of Democracy, these prophets of the new dispensation, have sought to wring fortunes from the dire need of their poorer brethren. Tread the Path of National Greatness.

I rise to second the nomination of William McKinley because with him as leader, this country has trod the path of national greatness and prosperity with the strides of a giant, and because, under him, we can, and will, once more and finally overthrow those whose success would mean for the nation material disaster and moral disgrace. Exactly as we have remedied the evils which, in the past, we undertook to remedy, so, now, when we say that a wrong shall be righted, it most assuredly will be righted.

We have nearly succeeded in bringing peace and order to the Philippines. We have sent thither, and to the other island towards whose inhabitants we now stand as trustees in the cause of good government, men like Wood, Taft and Allen, whose names are synonyms of integrity, and guarantees of efficiency. Appointees like these, with subordinate chosen on grounds of merit and fitness alone, are evidence of the spirit and methods in, and by which, this nation must approach its new and serious duties. Contrast this with what would be the fate of the islands under the spoils system so brazenly advocated by our opponents in their last national platform.

Our Success Means Peace in Islands.

The war still goes on because the allies in this country of the bloody insurrectionary oligarchy have taught their foolish dupes abroad to believe that, if the rebellion is kept alive until next November, Democratic success at the polls here will be followed by the abandonment of the islands—that means their abandonment to savages who would scramble for what we desert, until some powerful civilized nation stepped in to do what we would have shown ourselves unfit to perform. Our success in November means peace in the islands. The success of our political opponents means an indefinite pro-lives a happy wife. She writes: "I have used Mother's Friend for two confinements. The last time I had twins, and was in labor only a few minutes. Suffered very little." The reason why does expectant mothers so much good is because it is an external liniment, to be applied upon the outside, where much of the strain comes. It helps because the pores of the skin readily absorb it, and it comes into direct contact with and is absorbed by the parts involved. Morning sickness is quickly banished, the sense of dread and foreboding is not experienced, even during labor itself. Confinement is short and almost without pain. Recovery is quick and sure. Best of all, Mother's Friend benefits the unborn just as much as the expectant mother, and when the little one comes it will be strong, lusty and healthy.

longation of misery and bloodshed. We of this convention now re-nominate the man whose name is a guaranty against such disaster. When we place William McKinley as our candidate before the people, we place the Republican party on record as standing for the performance of which squares with promise, as standing for the redemption in administration and legislation of the pledges made in the platform and on the stump, as standing for the upbuilding of the national honor and interest abroad, and the continuance at home of the prosperity which it has already brought to the farm and the workshop.

On the Threshold of a New Century.

We stand on the threshold of a new century, a century big with the fate of the great nations of the earth. It rests with us now to decide whether, in the opening years of the century, we shall march forward to fresh triumphs or, whither, at the outset, we shall deliberately cripple ourselves for the contest. Is America a weakling to shrink from the world work that must be done by the world powers? No.

The young giant of the west stands on a continent, and clasps the crest of an ocean in either hand. Our nation, glorious in youth and strength looks into the future with fearless and eager eyes, and rejoices as a strong man to run a race. We do not stand in craven mood, asking to be spared the task, cringing as we gaze on the contest. No, we challenge the proud privilege of doing the work that providence allots us, and we face the coming years high of heart and resolute of faith that to our people is given the right to win such honor and renown as has never yet been granted to the peoples of mankind.

FAIRMONT NEWS.

Forty Cases of Smallpox at Charlestown—Excessive Fares Charged on Monongahela Branch of the Baltimore & Ohio—Street Railway Franchise Granted.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. FAIRMONT, W. Va., June 20.—The Davis Coal and Coke Company is acquiring a large body of valuable coal land in the Monongahela valley. Hon. John T. McGraw recently purchased a ten and one-half acre piece of coal land in Huntington district of Taylor county from Adam Fleury for $3,500, which he sold to Colonel Thomas B. Davis for $5,000. The McGraw interest purchased six tracts of coal land near Simpson for ex-Senator Davis, Senator Elkins and others.

Forty cases of smallpox are reported at Charlestown, and the enumeration of the census there has been suspended on account of the epidemic. The disease is confined to the colored population.

The civil case of Dabney C. Lee, of Charlestown, against Cruger W. Smith, of Charlestown, was recently argued before Judge E. Boyd Faulkner on a motion to amend the bill, and the court overruled the motion. The case grows out of a contest over valuable oil lands in Harrison county, from which Smith has been receiving large sums for oil, and Mr. Lee claims he has an interest in the land. The case will now be brought before the court in some other form.

The passenger travel over the Grafton & Belington branch of the Baltimore & Ohio has increased so as to make an extra coach necessary.

Travelers over the Monongahela branch of the Baltimore & Ohio, formerly the Monongahela River railroad, are complaining of the excessive fares. The distance covered by the road is not quite thirty-five miles, and the through charges are at the rate of forty odd miles.

The Baltimore & Ohio has fitted up a camp of fifty men, who are grading a second track between Grafton and Webster, and will form another for similar improvements between Grafton and Belington.

A franchise for a street railway to the company represented by Mr. B. K. McMechen, of Wheeling, passed its first reading before the city council last night. There was some opposition on account of the similar franchise previously granted to the company represented by Mr. M. T. Harriman, of this place.

Dr. Kessler has purchased the Kessler Hospital property at Charlestown from Mr. Brown, of Kingwood, and will remodel and enlarge.

WEST VIRGINIA FRUIT

Awarded a Second Prize at the Paris Exposition—Was Grown in the Northern and Eastern Panhandles. The following letter was received by Prof. L. C. Corbett, of the West Virginia Agricultural Experiment Station:

U. S. Depart. of Agriculture, Division of Pomology, Washington, D. C., June 8, 1900.

DEAR SIR:—Advice just received from the Paris exposition, through Mr. William A. Taylor, assistant pomologist, in charge of the installation of United States exhibits in group VIII, horticulture, announces that at the second international temporary competitive exhibit the West Virginia State Horticultural Society was awarded a second prize. Accept my congratulations. Very truly,

G. B. BRACKETT, Pomologist.

This is a great honor to the fruit growers of West Virginia, and should act as a stimulus to further the development of an industry, the products of which take such high rank in an international competition. This display of our fruit in connection with the marked recognition it has received, will give it a standing in foreign markets, and orchardists should be awake to the opportunities which this world advertising will place before them.

From Both Panhandles.

The fruit of Paris represents the product of both the northern and eastern Panhandles, thus showing the superior merits of fruits from both of the developed apple areas of the state.

The growers who contributed fruit were as follows: W. S. Miller, Gerards town; S. H. McKeown, Gerards town; J. T. Catrow, Martinsburg; G. P. Miller, Martinsburg; Alex. Chohan, Martinsburg; and Charles Brown's sons, Arroyo. Besides these three barrels were selected from the Berkeley county fruit at time of shipment and contributed by the experiment station.

Rothwell, Lovett & Co. stored the fruit free of charge in their fine cold storage plant at Martinsburg. Prof. L. C. Corbett, secretary of the State Horticultural Society and horticulturist of the agricultural experiment station, solicited the fruit and attended to the details of the shipment and delivery to the United States department at Washington.

ASK YOUR NEIGHBOR.

Hundreds of Wheeling Citizens Can Tell You All About It.

Home endorsement, the public expression of Wheeling people should be evidence beyond dispute for every Wheeling reader. Surely the experience of friends and neighbors, cheerfully given by them, will carry more weight than the utterances of strangers residing in far-away places. Read the following:

Mr. Albert Capps, of 934 Market street, ex-superintendent of the city electric light plant, says: "I had a steady, aching pain across the hollow of my back which were I to strain myself or take a mis-step was very severe and when I stooped I could hardly straighten up without putting my hands on my back. Were I to sit for a time in a chair, I became so stiff I could scarcely get up, and I had frequent attacks of dizziness so severe at times that I did not take hold of a support, I could not stand, stoop, or sit. I had tried many remedies, but without obtaining any decided relief, so when I saw Doan's Kidney Pills so well spoken of by parties who had used them, I came to the conclusion they would do me good. I got a box at the Logan Drug Store and began to use them at once, as my back was very bad at that time. I felt their effect immediately and in a few days was entirely relieved."

It is sold by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

Notes for the Kitchen.

Chicago News: Cans of potted meat or fish may be kept some time after they are opened and partly used if they are covered with a little melted butter of lard and kept in a cool place. This makes the contents air-tight and is easily removed when needed.

To prevent salt from absorbing the dampness and becoming hard in the bottom during the summer season mix a little cornstarch or rice flour with the salt, using one spoonful of starch to six of salt.

Fishes dislike the oil from bay leaves. It is easily expended by them. If a very little is kept in a dish on the window ledge, or if the doors and window casings are coated with any color of fresh paint to which 4 per cent of oil of bay has been added insects will shun them.

A Night of Terror.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham, of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "All through the night she lay in a stupor, and she must soon die from pneumonia, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of Consumption. After three hours she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung Diseases. Only 60c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at the Logan Drug Co.'s drug store.

NOTICE OF AMNESTY

To the Insurrectionists in the Philippines by General Arthur MacArthur—All Requested to Present Themselves to the Commanding Officers.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—The war department has made public the following notice of amnesty, which was issued by General MacArthur to-day at Manila:

"MANILA, June 21, 1900.

"By direction of the President of the United States the undersigned announces amnesty with complete immunity for the past and absolute liberty of action for the future to all persons who are now or at any time since February 4th, 1899, have been in insurrection against the United States in either a military or a civil capacity, and who shall within a period of ninety days from the date hereof formally renounce all connection with such insurrection and subscribe to a declaration acknowledging and accepting the sovereignty and authority of the United States in and over the Philippine islands.

Privilege Extended to All.

"The privilege herewith published is extended to all concerned without any reservation whatever, excepting that persons who have violated the laws of war during the period of active hostilities are not embraced within the scope of this amnesty. All who desire to take advantage of the terms herewith set forth are requested to present themselves to the commanding officers of the American troops at the most convenient station, who will receive them with due consideration, according to rank, make provision for their immediate wants, prepare the necessary records and thereafter permit each individual to proceed to any part of the archipelago, according to his own wish, or for which purpose the United States will furnish such transportation as may be available either by railway, steamboat or wagon.

Be Permitted to Visit Manila.

"Prominent persons who may desire to confer with the military governor or with the board of American commissioners will be permitted to visit Manila, and will, as far as possible, be provided with transportation for that purpose. In order to mitigate as much as possible the consequences resulting from the various disturbances which since 1896 have succeeded each other so rapidly, and to provide in some measure for destitute soldiers during the transitional period which must inevitably succeed a general peace, the military authorities of the United States will pay thirty pesos to each man who presents a rifle in good condition.

"ARTHUR MACARTHUR, Major General U. S. Volunteers."

CLARK MEN DEFEATED

From Participating in the Temporary Organization of the Montana Democracy.

BUTTE, Mont., June 20.—The state Democratic convention, called to meet at noon to-day, was postponed until 5 p. m., announcement to that effect being made by Chairman Cockrell, of the state central committee.

The Clark delegation from Silver Bow county gathered at the appointed hour, but were denied admittance to the hall by deputy sheriffs.

A fight in the state central committee over contested delegates from five counties will result in leaving the Clark men out of the temporary organization. This will give a temporary advantage to the Daly wing.

GRADUAL DISCHARGE

Of the Posse Comitatus Favored by Governor Stephens.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 20.—A meeting was held here to-day to consider the advisability of discharging the sheriff's posse. Governor Stephens, members of the police board and the chief of police were present.

Governor Stephens said later: "I hardly think there is any prospect of the posse being discharged before the Fourth of July. If the Fourth of July passes by all right, and there no new developments to indicate that the posse men are needed, I would favor their gradual discharge. Conditions are assuming a more favorable aspect here, and the police, capitalists, report that trouble is less in their various districts."
